

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is simply wrong.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. And the public interest is NOT served by the airing of divisive, one-sided propaganda masquerading as a news documentary. If they are allowed to air the anti-Kerry film "Stolen Honor" before the election, they should be required to air an anti-Bush film like "Fahrenheit 911" as well. Neither film is balanced, but together, they might cancel each other out.

Please don't let Sinclair Broadcasting circumvent the equal-time rules. Thank you for upholding our nation's ideals by refusing to put Sinclair's interest above the American citizens' right to an unbiased news media.
